ORDER REGARDING MOTION FOR SENTENCE REDUCTION
PURSUANT TO 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(2) (Amendment 821)

Upon motion of the defendant the Director of the Bureau of Prisons the court under 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(2) for a reduction in the term of imprisonment imposed based on a guideline sentencing range that has subsequently been lowered and made retroactive by Amendment 821 to the United States Sentencing Guidelines, and having considered such motion, and taking into account the policy statement set forth at USSG §1B1.10 and the sentencing factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a), to the extent that they are applicable,

IT IS ORDERED that the motion is:

DENIED. GRANTED and the defendant's previously imposed sentence of imprisonment (as reflected in the last judgment issued) of 25 months is reduced to Time Served .

Cindy Ramos was originally sentenced on November 9, 2022, to a term of 25 months imprisonment and a one-year term of supervised release, for the offense of Possession with Intent to Distribute Methamphetamine in Excess of 500 Grams. Her total offense level was determined to be 26 with a criminal history category I, which yielded an advisory sentencing range of 63 to 78 months. The Court also imposed a $100 mandatory assessment. She presently has a projected release date of May 4, 2024.

Based on Part B, subchapter 1 of Amendment 821 of the United States Sentencing Guidelines, the defendant is eligible for a two-level reduction under the newly created provision found at USSG § 4C1.1(a) for certain zero-point offenders. Such a reduction would result in a total offense level 24 with a criminal history category I, which yields an advisory sentencing range of 51-63 months.

The government agrees that the defendant is eligible for relief. Therefore, the Court grants the sentence reduction, and the same percentage of a reduction (downward departure) has been considered. The new imprisonment sentence imposed would be reduced to 20 months. This would result in a sentence of Time Served with a release date of February 1, 2024.

Except as otherwise provided, all provisions of the judgment dated 11/16/2022 shall remain in effect.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
